

< 'Can you Go, kid?' event guidebook >

In Korea, there are many children with outstanding Baduk(=Go) strength which can be hardly expected for their ages. Some of them even had great performances in International Children competition, but few participated in competitions as national representatives.

The pressure of the world championship as representative players should be a huge burden to them. Don't you think it is a duty as an adult to let young challengers realize in advance that the world is wide? Or can young challengers go beyond the boundary of the new world?

<How to Play>

1. Event form: Blitz game, 2~3R, foreign players (10+) vs young players (10+)
2. Venue: at the venue, the seminar hall at the Taebaek Hotel
3. Time limit: 10 minutes + Fischer Time 10 seconds (For 3R, it can be adjusted)

※If you exceed the time limit, 3 points are given to the opponent as a penalty, and one more Fischer Time is given. From the second time, it could be deemed to lose the match or take same penalty. (up to the opponent's will)

4. Handicap: Available only if the young player has lower Baduk strength

<Awards & Prizes>

- 1) Common prizes of the participation: character mood light
- 2) Certificates
- 3) Victory prizes: 1 box with a variety of Korean snacks

※Terrible penalty for the challenged who lose: you should mount the challenger on your shoulders!

<Notice>

- The games will be transmitted on the screen placed in the venue in real time.
- If the young player is not that small to put him/her on shoulder, please just take his/her hand to the sky like a winning warrior.
